

HOME SWEET SIOUX CITY

Located on the Missouri River and bordering both Nebraska and South Dakota, Sioux City is Iowa's fourth largest city and a regional hub for business, culture, and entertainment.

Morningside University is located in the heart of Sioux City, offering the best of two worlds: a small campus community with access to most of the amenities you would expect in a larger city.

MORNINGSIDE UNIVERSITY

The Morningside University experience cultivates a passion for lifelong learning and a dedication to ethical leadership and civic responsibility.

SHOP Sioux City is home to more than 100 national retailers and locally-owned stores, including Target, Old Navy, American Eagle, and Scheels.

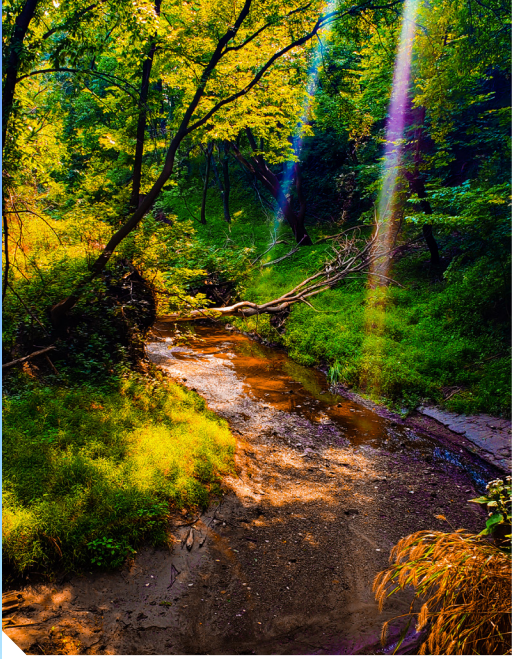

PLAY Sports nut? Sioux City is home to a Tier 1 junior ice hockey team, the Sioux City Musketeers; a professional baseball team, the Sioux City Explorers, and a professional indoor football team, the Sioux City Bandits. If you want to get active, you'll also find everything from fitness centers, ice skating rinks, frisbee golf, rec leagues, snow tubing, and more.

EAT On-campus dining is pretty great, but are also plenty of options if you are ready to change it up. National chain restaurants like Buffalo Wild Wings, Texas Roadhouse, Olive Garden, Chipotle, and more are just minutes from campus. Plus, there is plenty of great, Insta-worthy local fare, too, like Bob Roe's, Jim's Burger, and perennial student favorite La Juanita's (better known by most as La Jua's). During warmer weather months, you can also find some outstanding local food trucks - including a few that park adjacent to campus.

DID YOU KNOW?

Morningside Mustangs baseball has played at the Explorer's baseball field for over 2 decades

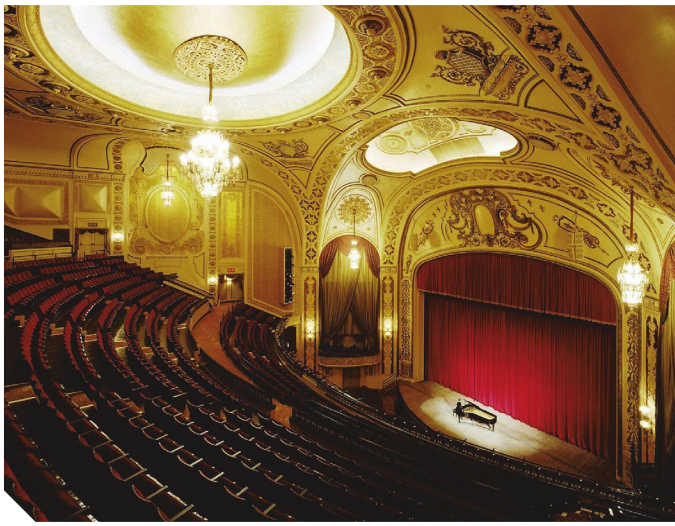

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

If fresh air and sunshine are your thing, Sioux City has no shortage of outdoor options. Stone State Park, Dorothy Pecaut Nature Preserve, Bacon Creek Park, Adams Homstead and Nature Preserve, and the Loess Hills are all great places to explore. Plus, MSN named Sioux City's Cone Park the #1 attraction in Iowa in 2018.

CULTURE AND ENTERTAINMENT

From Grammy award-winners to Tony award-winners, Sioux City keeps upping its entertainment game. The Hard Rock Hotel and Casino brings national entertainment acts year-round, including an outdoor concert series that brought Post Malone, Ke$ha, Pitbull, and many others to Sioux City in summer 2018. The Orpheum Theatre is home to the Sioux City Symphony Orchestra and hosts off-Broadway productions, music acts, and other performers. And the Tyson Events Center also hosts concerts ranging from Tim McGraw to Florida Georgia Line, as well as other entertainment and sporting events.

Sioux City has grown and changed significantly in the last decade, and more plans are in the works. The city has a number of projects in progress as part of the Sioux City Reinvestment District. Additionally, plans are in the works for a new riverfront area and other renovations in historical buildings, including a proposed performing arts center.

DID YOU KNOW?

You'll hear the Morningside name a lot when living in Sioux City because it's not just a college - it's also the designated name for a large neighborhood within the city.

